They were back in Brown County by 1864 as he was preaching at that time at West Fork and Mt. Orab, also in school houses in Washington and Scott Twps.

I believe that Mary E. Evans was probably born and reared in Brown County near Clermont County as they were married in Brown Co. and moved to Clermont near his home,as I believe the above Mary Robinson 53 (Pa.) to have been his Mother, and the above John W. Robinson 33 (Ohio) to have been his Brother.

Will be glad to pay you for any time you spend researching these lines, sorry I dont have any more information to give you, and hoping to hear from you at your convenience.

Thank you

Dear Mrs. Wilson;

I have finally got back to Evans, Robinson,Louderback families. Have been doing research on the Shaw line of my wife's family. Information was obtained from the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in Salt Lake City, Utah. They had on file family group sheets of whole families that had been baptised by proxy. The sheets were only 5¢ but the reseacher charged me $6.00 per hour. I got back to 1648 when the first Anthony Shaw came to America from Halifax England, the family had fled Scotland in 1536 and settled in England.

I found a copy of an 1840 census of Franklin Twp. Brown County O. page 238, record group n0. 29) of William Evans as head of a family;
consisting of ;

|---|---|---|---|
| Males | 2 under 5 | Females | 1 5 under 10 |
| | 2 5 under 10 | | 1 30 under 40 |
| | 1 10 under 15 | | |
| | 1 40 under 50 | | |
| | 1 60 under 70 | | |

You probably have this information, but thought I would pass it along.

Susie Robinson daughter of William Henry and Mary E, (Evans) Robinson who married Fred Kautz and lived in Mt. Orab O. for years, then moved to Indiana, and died and are buried at Otterbein Home in Lebanon O.gave her niece Edith Robinson now in California a quilt years ago, and told her it was made by her mother's mother, it is dated 1854 and signed by needle and thread M.L. DILLMAN. Hope this information will be usefull.

PS (either W.H. Or Mary (Evans) Robinson's Mother above)

wagon in the region around Mowrystown. Fannie Edgington and William Edgington owned large farms in White Oak Twp.; Cora, Eli and John C. Edgington, in Concord; Jesse, in Clay; Amos and Amos D., in Liberty Twp.; and Lucretia Edgington was on E. South St. in Hillsboro.

No effort was made to bring the family history up to date, but the early history of the family is so interest-packed that it was included. According to the original manuscript, it was written, "So all of the present generation and all future generations of Edgingtons may have a love of family pride, always building and adding to the rich traditions carved out by the founding father, George Edgington. His creed was, Our minds are given us, but our character, we make."

THE HUGH EVANS FAMILY

mar. Wm. "Billie" Hill located same place & time as below

Samuel Evans, a native of Wales, was the father of 13 children by his first wife and 11 by his second. He was living near Hagerstown, Md. when a son, Hugh, was born Oct. 7, 1730. When 30 years old Hugh Evans married Sarah Harden, who died soon after the birth of an only daughter, Sallie, in 1762. In 1763, he married Lavinia Simpson who became the mother of 6 children. He served in Capt. Fisher's Co., 7th Batt'n of Cumberland, Md. during the Revolution.

Hugh Evans lived with his family on George's Creek, in Fayette Co., Pa., until 1788 when he and several neighboring families moved to Kentucky. They loaded their possessions on a flat boat and floated down the Monongahela to Wheeling. They were delayed there for some time because of Indian uprisings in the area. However, they were joined by a number of soldiers and Indian spies who thought it was safe to resume their journey. They floated down the river to Limestone (Maysville) without being attacked. They went inland to a site near the present location of Paris, Ky., in Bourbon Co. They constructed cabins for each family, cleared out the cane brakes and planted a crop of corn, potatoes, etc.

When Kentucky became a slave state, the family decided to move to the Ohio country. When they reached the Ohio River they learned that although the Treaty of Greenville had been signed, it was still too dangerous to invade the region across the river. After some consultation they again decided to remain in Kentucky for a time. They erected three cabins on Cabin Creek, some three miles from the river bank. They cleared more land and put in a crop depending on the wild game in the area for their meat supply. Highld Co. Hist. says Clear Crk.

Hugh and Lavinia (Simpson) Evans were the parents of *Richard, 1764-1855; Nancy, 1769-1854 (Mrs. Joseph Swearingen, he was a brother of Marmaduke Von Swearingen who was taken captive by the Shawnees in 1771 and became the famous Indian Chief, Blue Jacket), *Samuel, 1771-1841; *Amos, 1774-1841; * Daniel, 1776-1840; and Sophia, 1779 (Mrs. George Wilson). m. 24 Sep 1797 Mason Co., Ky ba Hugh Evans amos & Dan Evans bdsmen and the latter was apprenticed to Andrew Ringer. May 9, 1847, Samuel Engle enlisted in the volunteer service of the United States Army, in Company A, Fourth Indiana Infantry, for service during the War with Mexico, and was honorably discharged May 20, 1848, at Madison, Ind.

Mr. Engle was married, at the age of twenty-two years, to Annie Catherine Pope, and of this union ten children were born, of whom two sons and two daughters still survive. In 1858 Mr. Engle moved with his family to Effingham County, Ill. At first he worked at any employment he could find, but in October, 1861, enlisted in Company K, Eleventh Regiment Illinois Volunteers, to serve three years, being enrolled October 8th, being discharged from service, however, July 9, 1862, on a surgeon's certificate of disability. After his return home he was employed by John F. Waschefort, of Teutopolis, who was at that time engaged in an extensive milling and lumber business, and for seven years Mr. Engle worked in this business, driving a team and hauling logs and lumber. He then moved to a farm. In 1881 his wife died and was buried in Blue Point Cemetery in Effingham County. Mr. Engle was married (second) in 1891, to Mrs. Davis, a widow living in Fayette County. At the present time Mr. Engle has fifteen grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Mr. Engle is now much broken in health, but cheerfully retains his interest in affairs about him, and walks out on his crutches whenever the weather will permit him. He much enjoys meeting his old friends, comrades and neighbors, and is a very sociable and agreeable companion. He is not a member of any church and belongs to no society except the Grand Army of the Republic. He and his wife live quietly and comfortably in their little home, their wants being supplied by the liberality of the generous Government for which he fought in two mighty wars. Mr. Engle has established a reputation as an honorable and upright citizen, who has lived a simple, pure life and has been strictly honorable in his transactions with his fellow men.

EVANS, Robert Clark.—With many men there seems to be but one line which they can follow, one vocation which fits their abilities, one special occupation in which they can find success, and until they have settled themselves in that special groove, they make little headway. To the man of versatile traits and abilities, however, any line of occupation which presents itself is acceptable, and if he be persistent enough he will win success in whatever field he finds employment. Robert Clark Evans, merchant and prominent citizen of Eberle, Ill., is not only a man of versatile abilities, but is a good example of the successful self-made man of to-day. He was born on the farm now owned by John Woody, in Section 24, Union Township, Effingham County, Ill., November 20, 1857, and is a son of Ransom and Anna (Morris) Evans.

Robert Clark Evans can remember but little of his parents, as he was but a child when both died. However, it is thought that Ransom Evans came from South Carolina as a youth, with his parents, and settled in Indiana, where he was married and where four of his children were born. About 1850 he came with his family to Effingham County, settling on the farm in Union Township, which some years later he traded for a mill near Flemsburg, in Union Township. He operated the mill until his death in 1860, his wife passing away four years later. They were the parents of these children: Amanda, wife of John McNelley, of New Bible Grove, Clay County, Ill.; John, who died in infancy; William; Robert Clark; Ruhama, wife of James Rentfrow, of Perkins, Okla.; Louisa J., widow of Henry McGee, residing on a farm near Bible Grove, Clay County; and Henry, of Custer County, Neb.

Robert Clark Evans went to live with his brother William after the death of his mother, and was given a limited education, but at the age of fourteen years he started to shift for himself, going to work for John Woody on the farm on which he was born, his wages being $12 per month for the first year and $16 per month for the two years following. In 1872 he began renting land for himself in Lucas Township, and continued farming until 1892, when he engaged in mercantile business at Eberle with Peter Jacob, under the firm name of Evans & Jacob, and this partnership continued until 1900, when Mr. Evans purchased Mr. Jacob's interests, and since then his son Theron has been admitted into partnership, the firm style now being R. C. Evans & Son. They handle a full line of high-class goods needed by the people of their community, and their practice of giving farmers with whom they deal the full worth of their produce, as well as a square deal for their money, has won them a fine trade throughout the town and its vicinity. Mr. Evans is a good business man and realizes that his best profits will come through doing a large amount of business and having the confidence of his customers, and his business has increased correspondingly. Left early in life to shift for himself, he has shown what a man can do by persistently and earnestly seeking success, and his example should be a good one for those who have not had the benefit of an easy start. In politics he is a Democrat, and fraternally is connected with the Odd Fellows at Eberle. He will be found supporting all movements for the good of the public or the community.

In 1872, Mr. Evans was married to Frances (Holt) Trapp, and to this union there were born four children: Leslie, a photographer, of Kearney, Neb.; Ollie, the wife of Charles Woody, a farmer in Union Township; and twins that died in infancy. The mother of these children died in 1878, and Mr. Evans was married (second) to Mrs. Eliza Thorp, widow of Charles C. Thorp, born July 29, 1844, in Shelby County, Ind., daughter of Robert B. and Permelia (Steers) Peck, natives of Boone County, Ky., where they were reared and married. About 1830 they emigrated to Shelby County, Ind., where they entered land from the Government and made a home. They were parents of twelve children, of whom four survive: Elender, wife of Cornelius Mingle, a resident of Rush County, Ind.; Permelia, wife of George Howe, of Shelby County, Ind.; John T., on the old home farm in Shelby County, Ind.; and Mrs. Evans. Eliza Peek was married and came with her husband, Charles C. Thorp, to Elliottstown, Effingham County, and in 1872 they located on a farm in Lucas Township. Five children were born to Mr. Thorp and his wife: two of whom died in infancy; Presley T., a resident of Alberta, Can.; Amy A., wife of Mike Crouk, a farmer in Jackson Township; and Ora A., a resident of Champaign County, Ill. Mr. Thorp died in 1870, and the marriage of his widow and Mr. Evans took place February 4, 1879. Mr. Evans and his wife have had one son, Theron, a member of the firm of Evans & Son, who was born July 1, 1885, was educated in the common schools, and April 22, 1906, was married to Iva Woody, daughter of John Woody. Two children have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Theron Evans: Beulah, born December 12, 1906; and Clenna, November 19, 1909.

EVERSMAN, Henry.—There are certain traits of character that are necessary to make a man an efficient and successful financier. He must possess sound judgment, know human nature, be well acquainted with financial conditions, and be conservative in his action. The Effingham State Bank is fortunate in its Assistant Cashier, Henry Eversman, who although still a young man is well known in banking circles, and is associated with some of the substantial institutions of the county. Mr. Eversman was born in Teutopolis, Ill., April 4, 1880, son of Dr. Henry and Caroline (Waschfort) Eversman.

F

Dr. Eversman was born in Hanover, Germany, February 23, 1837, a son of Francis F. and Charlotte (Tirren) Eversman, the former born in Alfhausen, Hanover, Germany, in September, 1807, and his wife born in Osnabruck, Hanover, Germany. Francis F. Eversman educated his son Henry, later Dr. Eversman, in the parochial schools of his native country. After coming to this country, the young man studied in Cincinnati, Ohio, and later attended St. Xavier's College, at Cincinnati, for four years. He then became a student in the Ohio Medical College of that city, and remained three years. In January, 1862, he was appointed house physician in the Commercial Hospital in Cincinnati by President Lincoln, with the rank of Assistant Surgeon. Later he became Chief Surgeon after a service of six months, and also held other important professional offices during his term of service. Returning home in September, 1865, he began the practice of his profession in Effingham. In 1881 he embarked in the banking business as member of the firm of Eversman, Wood & Engbring, private bankers. He remained active in this institution until his demise, which occurred April 7, 1903, when Effingham lost one of its most valuable and desirable citizens. His widow survives him, residing in Effingham. Dr. and Mrs. Eversman were the parents of six children, four of whom are now living: Louise, wife of W. H. Engbring; Mary, wife of J. G. Schultz, of Lewiston, Idaho; Elizabeth, wife of Dr. H. Taphorn, of Effingham; Henry; Frederick and Clara, both deceased.

Henry Eversman was married May 4, 1905, to Ursula Fisher, born in Effingham County, November 17, 1885, daughter of John and Bridget (Wade) Fisher, a sketch of whom appears elsewhere in this work. Mr. and Mrs. Eversham have one child—Henry Louis.

Mr. Eversman was given a thorough education in the schools of Teutopolis and at St. Joseph Catholic College, from which he graduated in the commercial course with high honors. His business career began when he was only fifteen years old, in the bank where he has remained for fourteen years, gradually earning promotion until he now is Assistant Cashier. He is also a director and stockholder in this bank, is a Director in the Washington Building and Loan Association, and Treasurer of the Effingham Building and Loan Association, and owns city realty of considerable value.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Eversman are members of the Catholic Church of Effingham, and are active in church work. In politics Mr. Eversman is a Democrat, but has never aspired to public office. He is a member of the K. of C. and the C. K. of A., both of Effingham. Mr. Eversman is one of the most practical and reliable bankers of the county, and having given all his life to the work, knows its every detail. Thoroughgoing in all he undertakes, with a keen taste for his business, he has a brilliant future before him and an outlook on life not usually gained by a man of his years.

FAUGHT, Charles Otis.—One of the representative men of Effingham County, Ill., is Charles Otis Faught, who was for many years known as one of the most prominent railroad constructors in the country, and is now living retired at Altamont, Ill., where he is President of the Altamont Agricultural Fair Association. He was born in Kenton, Hardin County, Ohio, November 22, 1858, son of Preston anl Lena (Pugh) Faught, who moved to Shelby County, Ill., in 1864, and located on a large tract of land near Shelbyville. The father died at Tower Hill in the fall of 1894.

Charles Otis Faught was sent to the public and high schools at Tower Hill and Pana. On completing his education he took up the study of telegraphy, but shortly thereafter started civil engineering, which he in turn gave up for railroad contract work, and in 1882 finished a few contracts on the old Clover Leaf, then a narrow gauge road. He soon accepted a contract for superintending the construction of a road from Wakefield to Niobrara, Neb., for Charles Felts, of Minneapolis; one on the Little Blue River, at (census over)

mar. BC 10-10-1864 Vol. 2 pg 486. David Gould MG

① - ⑤ Noah, third son of Richard Evans, was born in a cabin in Kentucky in 1795 and survived until July 18, 1871. He was married twice and was the father of ten children. His first wife was Elizabeth Robinson of Chillicothe. Born in 1805 she died Mar. 3, 1861. His second wife, Harriett Hopkins of Ripley, Brown Co., succumbed Sept. 22, 1873. They had a son William Dickey Evans, born in 1826 who died in 1857. ② Noah, Jr., born in 1823, was also married twice. He had a daughter by his first wife, Ella Wilson, before she died. His second wife was Penelope, daughter of Benjamin Barrere, early banker of Hillsboro. She was born in 1859 and survived until 1916. ③ Elizabeth, daughter of Noah Evans, Sr., became the wife of Robert A. Linn and the mother of six children.

In 1858 the Evans farm was divided. Noah, Sr. moved into Hillsboro after the division of the property. James R. Evans took over the old homestead and the land on the south side of the pike east of the county seat. He sold the farm to Jacob Pennington in 1864. Noah Evans moved back to the farm in 1860 and commenced the erection of a beautiful brick home opposite the old homestead. It was promptly called "Noah's Ark" because it set on the brow of a hill and was occupied by "Noah" Evans and his family. Noah Evans died while on a trip to visit relatives in Missouri.

② Samuel, second son of the emigrant, Hugh Evans, was born in 1771 and
* census over died in the county, Aug. 10, 1853. He fought in the War of 1812 and received land for his services. Early court records contain the names of many of the men in the Evans family who served in various capacities in county, township and even in state offices. When the first Supreme Court was held in New Market in October, 1806, Samuel Evans was foreman of the jury. He also served as trustee of Liberty Twp. at the same time his brother Amos was clerk.

The first school in what is now Liberty Twp. was on land cleared by Samuel Evans. It was appropriately called "Sam Evans' Academy." He was elected to the Senate of Ohio in 1810, 1811 and again in 1816.

Bourbon Co., Ky 1793 Samuel Evans married Mary Foreman who was born in 1771 and died June 30, 1858. Their children were John, Betsy, Amos, Deletha, Robert, Lavinia, Foreman, Simpson and Nancy Evans.

Foreman Evans, born in 1800, died June 30, 1870. His first wife was Mary E., daughter of Judge Richard Evans, born in 1802, she succumbed Nov.
15, 1858. After her death Foreman Evans married Anna Ferris, who was born in 1838 and who survived until 1923. After the death of her husband, Anna (Ferris) Evans became the second wife of Gov. Alphonso Hart. They lived in the beautiful Evans home on the north side of E. Main, known for over half a century as the office of the popular Dr. John C. Larkin. 1 Rush E., son of Foreman and Anna (Ferris) Evans, born in 1862, survived until 1928. A daughter, 2 Nannie Marie, born in 1865, died at the age of six years. 3 Katie, also a daughter of Foreman Evans, married J. W. Evans, who was associated with his father in the Evans and Ferris bank.

Simpson, son of Samuel Evans, born in 1802, survived until Jan. 28, 1882. His wife, Mary, was born in 1807 and died Mar. 21, 1851. Their eldest of Simpson Evans became the wife of James Buntain, a direct descendant of th Revolutionary War veteran, William Buntain.

③ Amos, third son of Hugh Evans, was born in Pennsylvania and died in Highland Co., Feb. 20, 1841. In 1895 when Gen. Wayne was negotiating with the Indians at Fort Greenville, Nathaniel Massie and a party of nearly half a hundr

Elizabeth Wilson, who became the wife of Amos Evans, was born in 17 1782 and died Feb. 6, 1856. The tombstone of Amos and Elizabeth Evans contains Hugh the legend, "Early Pioneer Methodists in Ohio." Their children were John, Drucilla, Oct. 6, 1799-May 16, 1877 (Buntain); Lavinia, Greenbury, Malinda, 1802-1866 (Eshelman), Warren, Julia, and James Evans. Hugh, son of Amos Evans, married Eliza Fleming, 1807-1847. * see FG's

④ Daniel, youngest son of the pioneer, Hugh Evans, was born in 1776 an
* census over died in 1840. He married Mary Roland who became the mother of the followi children: Hugh, Thomas R., Esther, Charles, 1810-1871; Milton, who lost hi hs young wife, Louisa Anne, in 1839 at the age of 23 years. She was laid to res in a grave on the family farm. After her death Milton Evans went west to live; Esther, named for the older sister who died as an infant; Vashti, James, and Mary Evans, who became the wife of William Town of Greenfield.

Hugh Evans, although past 65, accompanied a surveying party into wh is now Highland Co. They explored several tracts of land but decided to locate their land grant on Clear Creek, northeast of the present site of the county seat.
Nathaniel Massie entered several tracts in the Evans name since he was in the party. The surveys he entered for them were: Hugh and Amos Evans, Surve
No. 2,414—600 acres, dated Mar. 18, 1797; Daniel Evans, Survey No. 2,415—400 acres, same date; and Samuel Evans Survey, No. 2,416—400 acres, dated Mar. 19, 1797. Other surveys were entered until the total acreage was over 3,00

In the spring of 1799, Hugh Evans, his sons, Richard, Samuel and Daniel his sons-in-law, William "Billy" Hill, husband of Sallie Evans, daughter by hs first marriage, and Joseph Swearingen, left their Kentucky home to prepare land for their families. They followed the trace cut through from Maysville to New Market and after a short visit with the genial Oliver Ross, cut a road th through to their land grant on Clear Creek. They set about clearing land, built a ca and planted some seeds to provide food to take care of their needs. The wild game provided their meat supply for the summer.

Although history does not record the fact, some of the Evans family must have remained in the lonely cabin on Clear Creek during the winter of 1799-1800 to protect their property from squatters or from the Indians still encamped on the nearby watercourse.

Richard Evans, eldest of the sons, returned to Kentucky and brought his family to the cabin in March, 1800. He loaded a heavy sled with the essentials needed for the family. It was pulled by a team of horses and a team of strong oxen. The ground was completely covered with snow, which stayed on during their entire trip. The remainder of their household goods, seeds, etc. were left to be brought through when the ground became solid in the late spring. The first Evans cabin was constructed on that part of the Evans Survey later owned by the Lewis Duckwall family.

More land was cleared; corn, potatoes, pumpkins, gourds, watermelons and other vegetables were planted. The rich, loose soil produced a bumper crop which the family shared with the Indians who still visited the area. The Shawnees and Wyandots returned in great numbers and often paid visits to the Evans and other families who came to the neighborhood within a few years. They attended services in the home of the Rev. Edward Chaney, who also lived nearby. Although they understood very little English, they remained respectfully quiet. The watermelons grew to an enormous size and were enjoyed by the red men, who called them "punkins." They were also very fond of the large turnips grown in the virgin soil.

In the fall of 1800, Samuel Evans returned to Kentucky for his family. He was accompanied by his brother-in-law, "Billy" Hill, who also had a cabin ready for his family. When the corn began to ripen that first summer, it was ground in a tin grater, but as soon as it began to harden, the grater was useless. The large family needed to find an easier way to grind the corn, so Richard Evans constructed what was known as a "sweat mill." It was so named because of the work involved in operating that type of grinder.

When court was held in the Knox Tavern June 27, 1808, the will of Hugh Evans, the emigrant, was admitted to probate. His death had occurred Mar. 27, 1808. He was laid to rest in an unmarked grave on the farm he helped his sons carve out of the wilderness. In 1807 when the list of voters was recorded it contained the names of the following members of the Evans family: Samuel, Esq., Hugh, Amos, Dan, Dickey, Samuel on Rocky Fork, David, and John in Liberty Twp. and Evan Evans in Fairfield. The latter was known as "The Quaker," a friend of the Indians. He brought his family to the area in 1801 from their home in Virginia. His family were Quakers who did not believe in using arms against any man, but Evan Evans was a soldier of the Revolution, goaded by the injustice of King George until he took up arms to protect his family. He also died in 1808 and was buried in an unmarked grave, in Fairfield Twp.

Richard Evans served as one of the first Associate Judges after Highland Co. was formed. He became a very influential man in the early history of our area. In 1809 he started construction of a brick home east of Hillsboro. Today that home is the oldest inhabited dwelling in the county. The bricks were burned on the farm and laid by Robert and Samuel Wasson, brothers. The carpenter work and other construction was done by Richard Lucas and David Reece, who also figured prominently in our early history.

Richard S. Evans was president of the Hillsboro Bank and Savings Co.
1912. He was born Oct. 3, 1834, and died Sept. 25, 1913. His wife, Sarah El zabeth Ervin, was born Apr. 13, 1837 and died Sept. 26, 1918. She was a grad ate of the Oakland Female Seminary in the class of 1858. Their son, John W.
Evans also served several years in the Hillsboro bank.

John W. and his wife, Katherine Evans, were the parents of Katherine, who married Linton Hunnicutt; Anna Elizabeth (Mrs. Norris R. Elliott), R. Er Evans and Richard Evans, who died as a result of an injury while playing footb in college.

R. Ervin Evans and his wife, the former Mildred Morgan, who is a dir descendant of the early merchant and businessman, John Smith, were leaders the formation of the Highland Co. Historical Society. The society was formed the Evans home on N. High. R. Ervin Evans served as the first curator and b he and his wife have served as trustees.

D. J. FALLIS

Daniel J. Fallis, one of the early businessmen of Hillsboro, establishe his first storeroom on W. Main under the name of "Barry and Fallis." He ma ried Harriett Pope and went to housekeeping on the south side of E. Main, eas the present Spargur building. In the early 1840s, Fallis purchased the northe corner of High and Main Sts. (now Merchants Bank corner) and erected a spac three-story brick building. For a number of years he operated a successful cantile business. He was interested in the progress of the town and was instr mental in helping to sell bonds for the first railroad in 1852. He was appointe by the railroad company to superintend the construction of the extension throu Marshall Twp. When the Hillsborough Railroad merged with the Cincinnati an Marietta, all activity on the extension was suddenly stopped. The officials th the road would be a rival to their eastern line into Chillicothe, O.

He also helped Col. William H. Trimble in his attempt to construct the Southern Ohio Railroad. The Civil War and, later, the panic of 1873, caused failure of the project. D. J. Fallis lost most of his savings and the money he put into the railroad projects. Money was not forthcoming on a railroad until after the first train made an initial run. He borrowed money from the Dr. W.
Smith family and moved to Covington, Ky. He worked for a time in the office an iron foundry, then went to work for the Merchants National Bank of Cincinn O. He served as president of the bank from 1873 until his death in the 1890s.

This disavows the statement that Fallis absconded with the railroad m and set up an iron foundry in Kentucky, near Cincinnati. In the first place, th author has the records on the early railroads, and only enough money was for coming to pay local hands at the end of the week. Then, too, had he taken the money, the bank in Cincinnati would not have hired him. The money borrowe from Mrs. Rachel Kirby was paid back at regular intervals to Mrs. William

Dear Linda,

I received the information last Saturday and just can't tell you how delighted I am with it. I had seen that little thing in the Brown Co. book about Benjamin Evans settling on a hill beyond Ripley in 1796 and somehow had the thought that he could be my ancestor. It turned out to be just that. Although, I have several ancestors born in Ohio before 1800 or shortly thereafter, this one makes me feel like I can relate to history in the making.

There is little I can add, but I do have a few marriages and some other odds and ends that you may be able to use or that may be helpful to someone else.

✓ Jeremiah Evans and Margaret Woods were married 17 June 1830

✓ Wesley Evans and J. Catherine Simpson -- no return-- and I forgot to copy the date license issued. 22 July 1839

✓ William Evans may have m. Nancy Neville - Br.Co. O. D-4 - page 125 lic 30 Sept 1834

– There is another marriage - William Evans - Louisa Lamb Br. Co. O. F-6-page 69 don't know if it is a 2nd marriage or another William Evans. No, another one s/o George Robert Lain - Martha Witham m. 5 June 1806 Clermont Co. O. - Clermont Co. History by Rockey and Bancroft. The woman's name is right, but she is too old.

Lucetta Lane and Thomas Yates m. 24 June 1863 Br. Co. O. Bk.2 - page 351 daughter of Isaiah Lane.

Martha Lane b. 18 April 1797 Pa. - d. 6 July 1860 - buried in Fitch's Chapel Cemetery - Union Twp.Br. Co. O.

P.J. Lane - 70th Reg. OVI - 1822-1862 - buried in Fitch's Chapel Cem-

Mary, wife of Parsley Lane - buried east of Ripley,Union Twp. Howard's cemetery

Guess what! Isaiah Laine (Lane) was in Union Co. in 1860. That's why he wasn't on Brown Co. census. I aim to find out, but I imagine Mary Ann had died before that. As he was a carpenter by trade, he may have found work up there. Many of his descendents had tuberculosis so that is why I thought perhaps Mary Ann died before 1860. Louisa died fairly young, and my grandmother died at 26 years old. Her sister that married an Edgington also died when she was about 26.

I think, but cannot prove yet, that Presley J., Fernando, Mansfield, and Isaiah were brothers, sons of Martha. The older Presley was right age to be a brother of their father. Now, anyway, who else could think up such names?

Another odd thing. I had always wondered how in the world my great grandparents ever met in the first place. Well, my great grandfather, Francis Marion Henderson had a sister Nancy who married Elias Cochran. In 1860 before he went to fight in the Civil War he was living with them. My g-g-grandmother evidently had died before 1860 as my g-g-grandfather was living with one of the girls in Huntington Twp. not far from where Louisa was, so there might be two different ways they could have met. Small world, isn't it.

This is about all I know now, but will share anything else I run across.

I am enclosing a family chart showing the children, with their birthdates, of Francis Marion Henderson and Louisa Florence Lane. Also, a chart showing my grandmother's children ( she-a daughter of F.M. Henderson and Louisa.)

Later I am going to send some pedigree charts which can be put in the library for anyone tracing the same lines. Most of them go back to Brown Co., or lived in Brown Co. part of the time; Include Barker, Warman, Henderson, Elliott, Hesler, Snyder, Naylor, McDaniel, Lane, Evans, Engle, Gregory, Milleson, Waits, May, Workman. This is in my direct lineage.

Enclosed you will find a book of stamps to help with your mail. If you are anything like me you go through postage stamps faster than a kid can use up an all day sucker.

Again, thank you so much for the information. It probably would have taken me years to run across it, if ever. I get down there 3-4 times a year if I am lucky. A person wears out in a couple of hours when trying to get it all at once. I have so many lines to trace in that area.

You probably have these things I sent, but I thought maybe there might be something new that you don't have.

Sincerely,

Margie

Henderson given by Marion Henderson (now dec.), marriage records Brown Co. O., death record, Brown Co. O., Louisa Henderson's death date and place of death taken from Francis M. Henderson's Pension record. Place and time of death , place of burial taken from Civil War records.

Regarding surname of Nancy-- the Bible which contained James Henderson's children had a piece missing where his wife's name was--with only MAY showing. Her name was Nancy so it could have been Nancy May or her surname may have been MAY. Someone in her line or the Henderson line had Indian blood according to tradition.

were the parents of 12 children: Sarilda, born 1853, married George Washington Stevenson. Ettie or Ellie married Tom Guthrie. Angeline married Franklin Neville, her twin brother, Amos never married. Anabel, married John Macklin, Tom married Minnie, LaVinna (Vinnie) born Dec. 4, 1871, married James Potter Brittingham on April [illegible]896 in Brown County. Thomas, William, Mary J., and George's marriage status is not known.

LaVinna had one daughter, Mary Frances Brittingham who married Raymond Clinton Hall during World War I. They moved to South Dakota where they homesteaded. Two children were born to them, Melva Virginia Hall and Frank Melvin Hall, born Dec. 14, 1921. Melba, born Oct. 27, 1919, married Elmer Jorgensen. They had two children, Carol and Robert. At the time this book was written this family all lived in Oakland, CA. Frank Melvin Hall, the son of Raymond and Mary, married Betty Albers of Blunt, SD. They had four children, Linda, Donna, Ronald and Crystal. This family lived in Pierre, SD. Submitted by Virginia Jorgensen.

* JESSE CARL AND FRANCES MATILDA EVANS- In January 1914, Jesse Carl Evans, and Francis Matilda Evans, bought 50 acres of ground and buildings on what is now known as Huber Road, Perry Township, Brown County, OH. They had five children, Magdalen, Walter, Dorothy, Donald, and Vincent.

Vincent was born Sept. 21, 1916, and has lived all his life in the same house his parents bought in 1914. He went to school in a one-room schoolhouse, known as the Johnson Schoolhouse, which is now part of our farm. The schoolhouse is located on Vilvens Road, and is now used for storage.

Vincent married Magdalen Mary Benz, on Oct. 8, 1941, in St. Martin Church, St. Martin, Brown County, OH. Magdalen was born April 4, 1921, in Cincinnati, OH. The daughter of Anthony Ignatius Benz, born in Covington, KY, and Catherine Victoria Murphy, born in Cincinnati, OH. Vincent and Magdalen have 13 children, Eugene, Robert, David, Donna, Sylvia, Ruth, Mary, Rita, Joseph, Marian, Richard, Stephen, and Karen. Twelve of the children were born in the same house as their father, and the 13th child was born in Brown County General Hospital. The children attended school at Fayetteville Perry Local School, and attended church with their parents at St. Patricks Church, Fayetteville, OH. We regret one member of the family is deceased as of 1985, our youngest son.

We made our living on the farm until 1951, when due to crop failure Vincent went to work at Cincinnati Milling Machine until 1956. Vincent then bought a bulldozer in 1956, and went into excavating business for himself. He built many lakes, and ponds, and did other excavating work in Brown County, and surrounding areas.

While Vincent worked away from the farm, Magdalen raised the children, fed the chickens, and delivered the lambs. The boys did the farming when they became old enough. The girls worked in the vegetable garden, helped with the canning, and gathered eggs from the 3,312 chickens we had in the egg laying house, which was part of the farm.

In 1980, Magdalen worked in the community to get Extended Area Telephone Service to Hamilton County. That was a benefit to many. Over the years the house that Vincent was born in was remodeled. We built a lovely lake, and the acres grew to 326.46. Vincent retired in 1989, from bulldozing, after a mild heart attack, and went to woodworking in his shop. We celebrated 50 years of marriage on Oct. 8, 1991, at Daly Hall located on the grounds of St. Patricks Church, Fayetteville, OH. Submitted by Magdalen Evans.

DR. W.H. EVANS-Dr. W.H. Evans, son of Andrew Evans and Mary Hiett Evans, practiced medicine for half a century and contributed to the Ripley Bee for fifty-two years. He grew up on his father's farm in Hiett, in Huntington Township, assisting on the farm and mill. He obtained a common school education at a local grammar school. 1857 On Sept. 23, 1837, he married Amanda, daughter of Robert and Johanna (Cooper) Scott. Mrs. Evans died 1860 and two children died in 1861. He moved to West Point, Tippecanoe County, IN, where he farmed and read medicine with his twin brother, Abraham F., who had graduated from the Ohio Medical College in Cincinnati; for a year after the death of Mrs. Evans, he returned to his home at Hiett, OH, and read medicine with Dr. Guthrie of Aberdeen.

Dr. W.H. Evans

On April 12, 1862, he entered the Army in Co. E, Eighty-Ninth Regiment, Ohio Volunteer Infantry, and was appointed duty sergeant. He was commissioned hospital steward when he was sent to the front Aug. 14, 1863.

He participated in 31 battles and skirmished with the Third Division, Fourteenth Army Corps, under Generals Thomas and Sherman. Dr. Evans engaged in the famous "Sherman's March to the Sea" and in other Civil War engagements including Chicamauga, Missionary Ridge, Tunnel Hill, Resaca Kenesaw Mountain, Atlanta, Jonesboro, and others. He was never injured seriously. On Dec. 24, 1864, he was detailed hospital steward of the Fourteenth Corps, remaining in Savannah until the following March; then rejoined the regiment at Goldsboro, NC, remaining there until Johnson's surrender. The regiment then marched to Washington, DC, where on June 7, 1865, he received an honorable discharge. He participated in the Grand Review at the Capitol.

Returning to his home at Hiett, he resumed his medical studies. The following October he entered the Charity Hospital Medical School of Cleveland, OH. He attended the lectures of Professor R.N. Barr, Surgeon General of Ohio. On Feb. 21, 1866, he received the degree of Doctor of Medicine, and at once began his practice of medicine in Huntington Township.

The marriage of Dr. Evans to Maria Powers Games occurred Dec. 5, 1867. Mrs. Evans was born Feb. 25, 1853, the daughter of John F. and Amanda (Early) Games. Seven children were born to the family. W.T. Sherman and P.H. Sheridan, twins, were born Oct. 1, 1868.

Esther Early was born Aug. 22, 1874, and married William Campbell, Dec. 22, 1898 (see Campbell.) Minnie Myrtle, born Feb. 16, 1876, was the wife of Edwin B. Kinkead, a farmer. They had two children, Marie and Glen. She died in 1958.

Wylie Weber, born nov. 30, 1878, died June 24, 1894. Nellie H., (Dec. 16, 1888-Jan. 1889.) Edwin Glenn, born Jan. 21, 1894, married Helen Weddell of Manchester, and died September 1954.

Dr. and Mrs. Evans resided at Hiett until his death on Dec. 9, 1914. After joining the Christian Church at Bethlehem, he became a licensed minister of the Ohio Christian Church.

He had always adhered to the principles of the Republican Party. For four years he was chairman of the Board of Pensions at Maysville, KY, a member of the

KENDALL FAMILY

The Kendalls of Adams County are descended from James Kendall Sr. (born circa 1725; died in 1798), a native of Maryland, who removed from Washington County, that state, to the vicinity of Uniontown, Pennsylvnia, near the close of the Revolutionary War. His wife was Ann (Lucas) Kendall (born April 27, 1728), daughter of Charles and Elizabeth (Evans) Lucas of Prince George County, Maryland. At the time of his moving to Pennsylvania, James Kendall Sr. patented a tract of 287 acres called "Brightfield" which lay two miles west of Uniontown. Here he resided until his death, which occurred early in 1798, as his will, drawn June 13, 1797, was proved March 13, 1798.

The children of James and Ann (Lucas) Kendall, as named in his will, were Thomas, Elizabeth, Mary, Sarah, Rena, Jemimah, James Jr., John, Samuel, and Ann (wife of Richard Lucas, who is named executor). Of these children, James Jr. and John emigrated with their families to Adams County, Ohio, and in 1803 settled about two miles north of the present village of Winchester on land purchased from Reuben Taylor, executor of Francis Taylor of Jefferson County, Kentucky; this land was the western half of Francis Taylor's Survey Number 2043.

A. James Kendall Jr., son of James Sr. and Ann (Lucas) Kendall, was born in Maryland in 1763 and died in Adams County, Ohio, in December, 1824. In or about 1784 he married, in Fayette County, Pennsylvania, Ruhama Moore, daughter of Aaron Sr. and Mary (Prather) Moore. She died in Adams County in 1842. Her brothers Hosea, Aaron Jr., and Henry Moore, and her sister, Martha (Moore) Hannah (wife of William Hannah), were also among the first settlers in Adams County.

In Caldwells's Atlas of Adams County, page 20, it is stated that James and Ruhama (Moore) Kendall were the parents of twenty-four children, eighteen of whom were living in 1880, "several of them in Winchester Township". This statement has been repeated in other works. However, only eleven children of James and Ruhama Kendall are listed in deeds in the Adams County Recorder's office covering the disposition of James Kendall's lands. They are as follows, with their marriages as shown in the Adams County deed and marriage records (order of birth approximate):

1. Aaron Kendall, married, October 24, 1804, in Adams County, Margaret (Peggy) Larwick, a widow.
2. William Kendall, married Rachel Brown, May 29, 1806.
3. James Kendall, married Mary (Polly) McNemar, July 8, 1810.
4. Hosea Kendall, married Elizabeth Fowler, August 21, 1815.
5. Thomas Kendall, married Elizabeth — .
6. Ruhama Kendall, married William Querry, November 29, 1814. He died prior to March 3, 1848, and she married second Andrew Robertson.
7. Samuel Kendall (born 1799) married, January 18, 1820, Sarah McColm (born 1798), daughter of John McColm.
8. Mary (Polly) Kendall (born 1802) married William Fenton, October 8, 1818.
9. Benjamin Kendall (born 1803) married Christina (Tenah) Moore, November 4, 1824.
10. Elisha Kendall married Abigail McColm, daughter of John McColm, February 8, 1825.
11. Elijah Kendall, a twin to Elisha; he was unmarried in 1826.

It is possible that James Kendall made a will in which other children were named. If so, it was destroyed in the court house fire of 1910. It does seem probable that Ira Kendall who married Mary Cross, June 27, 1823, in Adams County; Nancy Kendall, who married Matthew McColm, son of John McColm, March 28, 1827, in Adams County, and Thornton Kendall, shown in the 1820 census as a resident of Wayne Township, Scioto County, belonged to the family of James and Ruhama (Moore) Kendall.

Contrary to the statement in Caldwell's Atlas cited above, it is certain that only two of the children of James and Ruhama (Moore) Kendall remained after marriage in Adams County and reared their families in the Winchester neighborhood. They were Mary, who married William Fenton, and Benjamin, who married Christina (Tenah) Moore.

Mary (Polly) Kendall, daughter of James and Ruhama (Moore) Kendall, was born in Pennsylvania in 1802; she died May 17, 1848, near Winchester. On October 8, 1818, she married William Fenton, son of Jeremiah and Rosannah (Lawrence) Fenton. He was born in Luzerne Township, Union County, Pennsylvania, October 18, 1790, and died at his home near Winchester, January 21, 1870. He was a soldier in the War of 1812, serving in Captain Joseph Kratzer's Company of Ohio Militia. William and Mary (Kendall) Fenton are buried in the Winchester Cemetery. The children of William and Mary (Kendall) Fenton are listed in the "Family History of Jeremiah Fenton (1764-1841) of Adams County, Ohio", by William B. Brown.

Benjamin Kendall, son of James and Ruhama (Moore) Kendall, was born in 1803 in what is now Winchester Township, Adams County; he died on his farm near Winchester in 1877. On November 4, 1824, he married Christina (Tenah) Moore (born in 1799; died in 1885). Mrs. Olive (Moore) Lazenby of Wilmington, Ohio, a descendant of Aaron Moore (brother of Ruhama), states that Tenah was brought up in the home of Aaron Moore and his wife Violet (Moore) Moore, and that she was probably the latter's niece. Her mother may have a Frank–of Jewish ancestry. Benjamin Kendall and his wife are buried in the Winchester Cemetery.

Benjamin and Christina (Moore) Kendall had four children: James Kendall, Thornton Kendall, Isabella Kendall, and Hosea Moore Kendall.

I. James Kendall, son of Benjamin and Christina, was born near Winchester on August 4, 1825; he died February 28, 1891, on his farm between Winchester and Seaman. He married Mary Jane Kennedy; she was born October 21, 1832, and died January 1, 1914. They are buried in the Mt. Leigh Cemetery. They were the parents of seven children.

a. Elizabeth J. Kendall (born November 28, 1854; died November 24, 1951) married Isaac Martin (born January 30, 1855; died December 15, 1931). They had two children: Lucille Martin (married Ray Thomas) and Pearl J. Martin.

b. James Edward Kendall (born 1856; died 1931) married Sarah Glasgow (born 1862; died 1957). They had two children:

1. Willa Jane Kendall married Leslie Wittenmyer.

2. Oren Kendall (born November 14, 1892) married first Leota Eyre, by whom he had two children: Maxine Kendall (married Walter Locke), and J. Russell Kendall. He married second Mabel (McCann) Clark.

c. Charles M. Kendall (born 1858) married, June 15, 1892, Emma Hudson. They lived in Springfield, Ohio, and are buried there. They had two sons, Floyd J. Kendall and Harold Parker Kendall, both of whom died without issue.

d. Israel Hyman Kendall (born July 10, 1861; died April 28, 1948) married Georganna Keeler (born July 29, 1868; died March 6, 1935), daughter of George and Abigail (Lewellen) Keeler. They are buried at Winchester. Children:

1. Abbie Lee Kendall (born December 17, 1892; died in 1946) married Lonnie Jacobs, son of Samuel V. and Columbia (Edgington) Jacobs. They had two children, Hyman Jacobs and Betty Jacobs.

2. Charles E. Kendall (born November 20, 1902) married Geneva Holmes, daughter of Nelson and Alice (Treftz) Holmes. They had one son, Robert Kendall (born April 25, 1921), who married Frances West.

e. Mary E. Kendall (born September 6, 1863; died in 1960) married, September 26, 1888, John Young (born November 13, 1858; died in 1941). He as a merchant in Youngsville and Seaman. They are buried at Mt. Leigh. They had one son:

1. Rev. Hodson Kendall Young (born July 6, 1889; died January 12, 1963) married Esther Oliver Brown.

f. (Judge) Frank W. Kendall (born 1871; died 1949) married, February 17, 1898, Ruth Anna Handrehan (born June 20, 1875; died in 1943), daughter of Philip and Mary Ellen (Rea) Handrehan. He attended the Cross District School and the Winchester Schools and graduated from Wilmington College. He was a teacher and administrator in the schools of Adams County for more than forty years, and was elected and served as Probate Judge of Adams County for a number of years. He and his wife are buried in the Winchester Cemetery. They had three children:

1. Philip Rea Kendall (born May 13, 1900, at Winchester; died June 7, 1956, at Williamsburg, Clermont County) served in World War I. He married first Velta Mann (died 1921) and second Bess List (died 1973). There is one son by the first marriage, Thomas Handrehan Kendall (born 1921) of Columbus, Ohio; he is a veteran of World War II.

2. Phyllis Kendall (born September 3, 1902, at Winchester) graduated from Ohio Wesleyan University and taught for more than forty years in Ohio schools. She has never married, and lives in Columbus, Ohio.

3. Persis Kendall (born January, 1911) married Howard Adams; she is now a widow living in Columbus, Ohio. They have one daughter, Phyllis Ann, wife of Ralph Mazzola of Columbus.

g. Ben Kennedy Kendall (born October 14, 1874; died February 19, 1967, at Winchester, Ohio) married first, October 20, 1895, Lucy Jane Baker (born September 10, 1873; died June 18, 1902), daughter of Henry N. and Caroline (Fenton) Baker. There were no children by this marriage. Lucy J. Baker's mother was a daughter of William and Mary (Kendall) Fenton (see above). Ben K. Kendall married second, August 3, 1903, Belle Fenton Wilson (born December 4, 1880; died January, 1970), daughter of Cornelius S. and Caroline (Fenton) Wilson, and granddaughter of Samuel Lawrence and Roseanna (McNown) Fenton. Samuel L. Fenton was a son of William and Mary (Kendall) Fenton. Ben K. Kendall was an expert harness maker, and for many years operated a hardware and farm implement store in Winchester. He and Belle F. (Wilson) Kendall had two children:

MARSHALL FAMILY

William and Benjamin Marshall, who were near relatives (probably brothers), settled in Adams County in the early 1800's. William Marshall was born about 1760, probably in Virginia, and came to the county sometime prior to 1807, when he contracted with Andrew Ellison for the purchase of 96½ acres in Charles Harrison's Survey No. 1275 in what is now Liberty Township. He died shortly thereafter, as on October 5, 1807, Andrew Ellison and his wife Mary made a deed conveying this land to the heirs of William Marshall Sr., namely James Marshall, Fanny Marshall, Anna Marshall, Sally Marshall, William Marshall, John Marshall, and Mary Marshall. Of these, Anna and John apparently died young. Mary Marshall, widow of William Marshall Sr., continued to live on the farm until her death in the summer of 1834.

The children of William and Mary Marshall who lived to maturity and married were as follows:

1. Fanny Marshall, married, November 28, 1816, Samuel Finney.
2. Sarah (Sally) Marshall, married, December 18, 1817, John Finney.
3. James Marshall, married, November 5, 1818, Eleanor Liggett.
4. William Marshall Jr. was born December 26, 1799, in Ohio County, Virginia. On June 1, 1820, he married Jane Jordan (born July 15, 1805; died July 9, 1876). He bought out the other Marshall heirs, and lived until his death on the farm one and one-half miles south of Eckmansville which his father had originally purchased from Ellison. For several years he was postmaster at Hill's Fork (Fairview) Post Office. He died May 15, 1870; he and his wife are buried in the Cherry Fork Cemetery. They had a son, Samuel C. Marshall (born November 23, 1829; died January 25, 1885), who served in the Civil War in Co. I, 141st O.V.I. He and his wife, Louisa J. Marshall, are also buried at Cherry Fork.
5. Mary Marshall, married William Hamilton Jr. August 14, 1828. Their children were William M., Fanny J., John C., James S., and Samuel M.

Benjamin Marshall, who, as stated above, was probably a brother of William Marshall Sr., was born in Virginia circa 1762. He married in or about 1797, in Washington County, Pennsylvania, Elizabeth Ashenhurst, daughter of Oliver and Eleanor Ashenhurst. For a number of years they lived at a farm on Wheeling Creek near the state line of Pennsylvania and (West) Virginia. In 1817 they came to Wayne Township, Adams County, where he bought a tract of land in Abraham Shepherd's Survey 2725, one and three-fourths miles west of Eckmansville. He lived on this farm until his death in 1835; his heirs then sold the place to Joseph Shaw, who subsequently sold it to Stephen Alexander.

The children of Benjamin and Elizabeth (Ashenhurst) Marshall were as follows:

1. Eleanor Marshall (born in or about 1798, in Pennsylvania) married John Shaw, September 21, 1819, in Adams County. They lived on a farm in Jackson Township, Brown County, about four miles southwest of Winchester. Their children were Nancy, Elizabeth, James, Hannah, Mary, Martha, Sarah, and John. John died in the service, May 20, 1865, while enrolled in Co. H, 173rd O.V.I.

2. Hannah Marshall (born February 14, 1801; died July 3, 1868) married, January 26, 1826, in Adams County, Alexander Wright (born October 23, 1799; died September 26, 1875). In the 1830's they emigrated to Des Moines County, Iowa, where they died; they are buried in the Stone Church Cemetery, two miles west of Sperry.

3. John Marshall (born December 15, 1802) married 1st Alla Glaze and second Mary Campbell (see below).

4. Sarah Marshall (born circa 1804) married, August 2, 1822, in Adams County, James Edgington (born circa 1795), a son of George Edgington (see Edgington Family).

5. William Marshall (born about 1806) married, December 31, 1829, in Adams County, Sarah Gulick. They moved to Des Moines County, Iowa, about 1838. Their children were Francis, Alexander, Elizabeth, Lucinda, Oliver, and William.

6. Oliver Marshall (born about 1807) married, January 3, 1833, in Adams County, Susanna Edgington (born June 16, 1814; died April 29, 1857), daughter of George Edgington. They moved to Des Moines County, Iowa, about 1838. Their children were William, Clarinda, Benjamin, Elizabeth, Cassandra, John Taylor, Alexander, and Silas. Several of this family are buried at the Stone Church Cemetery near Sperry, Des Moines County, Iowa.

7. Elizabeth Marshall married Francis Gulick, February 25, 1830, in Adams County. They removed to Iowa in the late 1830's.

8. Martha Marshall (born about 1814) married, January 10, 1833, in Adams County, Beam Howland, son of Ichabod and Mary (Beam) Howland. Their children were Mary I., Elizabeth, Sarah R., Jonathan M., Nancy E., William O., Ichabod, and Martha Ann.

9. Banjamin M. Marshall (born about 1815) married, June 26, 1837, in Brown County, Ohio, Malinda M. Wright. Shortly after their marriage they moved to Des Moines County, Iowa. Their children were Hannah, Mary, Martha, Elvira, Thomas, William, Benjamin, Laura, and Joseph.

Of the children of Benjamin and Elizabeth (Ashenhurst) Marshall, only John Marshall (born December 15, 1802) has numerous descendants in Adams and Brown Counties. He married first, November 24, 1824, Alla Glaze, daughter of Nathaniel and Ritta Ann (Thompson) Glaze. She died shortly after she gave birth to a daughter on October 12, 1825. John Marshall married second, October 4, 1827, Mary Campbell, daughter of Matthew and Martha Campbell. Shortly thereafter he purchased a farm in Jackson Township, Brown County, about five miles southwest of Winchester, where he continued to reside until his death on July 29, 1886. His second wife died June 11, 1890, aged eighty years. They are buried in the Winchester cemetery.

John Marshall was the father of one child by his first marriage to Alla Glaze:

(Interesting-Hannah (Evans) Fields, dau. of Thomas Evans, gives his birthplace as PA. I have found that most children gave the area their parents were from and not their place of birth. Thomas Evans was born in Maryland, moved to PA and then probably to Mason Co., Kentucky and from there to Adams Co., Ohio (today Brown Co., Ohio-1987), Huntington Township).

.....The first preaching place was at Mrs. Wm Preston's, now Blacksburg. The preaching services during the next week included ..... Evans Meeting House and Col. Flemings." Wm Hill was the only one of 4 missionary preachers who kept a Journal of his activities. (HHHK: Does that include Rev. John Evans FINLEY and Rev. John CUTHBERTSON?)

Rec'd your wonderful packet - letter and copies of OLC - day before yesterday and have been gleaning names & info from my sources. Have included my essay on possible "travel" routes, a couple illuminating maps and some MILLER data I may not have sent before. Will keep watch for your MILLER family. Today at the WH Library I just may have found MORDECAI JACOBS where you haven't had him before! Going thru the Index of the 1790 VA Census there was M.J., thusly —

It is so close to MORDECAI JACOBS, do you suppose someone made a mistake & reversed the order of his names? Hope so! I'll copy the rest of the names I copied from the census on another page but will add here some odds & ends I had ~~here~~ at home for reference.

Enclosed also is the latest extra list (I receive 2) from Borderland Books for you to look at & dispose of. I want to send for 127, 128, 144 & 145, maybe 407 - don't know if I'll spend the money. Doug, my occasional source of gen. money has bought a house in upper N.Y .State for his family (4ch:) & with loan interest rates what they are now, I doubt that he'll have gen, money for awhile!

Congratulations on winning so many art show and antique trophies & ribbons. You certainly deserve every one and more for all that you accomplish artistically while cleaning, feeding, tending & putting up with all the other aggrevating facetsof your life. Winter descending upon the north in October & November doesn't help any either. We even feel the coolth down here! Hope you have lots of fire wood stacked up

Our courtyard has progressed but is not finished. Our potted plants are in the ground, but a bench must be built for the Cymbidiums, more grass must be removed, the back fence must be built and some more strategic plants must be planted. The automatic sprinkler system has been a design & construction job for Kirk, but works well for the times we are away. It'll soon be time to join the family for Christmas at Bonnie & Bob's in Raleigh, N.C.

I wish you a mild winter and a lovely Thanksgiving and hope your work load is lighter from now on. It does make a body angry to be impo[illegible]d on & not appreciated. In some case it doesn't pay to be a good sport & a willing worker — all the best to you & your family, Linda dear. Hang in there!!

Love, Hini

John Evans of the Border

This John Evans shouldn't be confused with Col. John Evans who lived near Morgantown & was prominent in the affairs of Morgantown & Monongalia Co. The John of this article lived on the Pa.-W. Va. State Line in what is now Dunkard Twp., Greene Co., Pa. this thought to be Va. at the time of his settlement.

A land grant certificate in Monongalia Co. Courthouse states "John Evans as assee of Daniel Veatch entitled to 400 acres land Monongalia Co. on the Monongalia River on the West side to include his settlement made in 1770". (The Monongalia Story Part I by Earl L. Core pg 172).

It is believed Evans arrived in 1769 as part of a co. "piloted out" to Crooked Run by his future son-in-law, John Snider.

Jan. 26, 1785 he had his property warrented with the Pa. authorities, 306 acres titled under "Evans' Pleasant Situation", it's sight on the state line & drainage of Crooked Run.

John Evans was a s/o Samuel Evans (1691-30 Sept. 1770) who was the s/o Richard Evans (died 1703) a native of Wales. Richard arrived in America 1674 believed in Md., he mar. Elizabeth Hall (d/o Richard Hale, early settler in Calvert Co., Md. & prominent member of Friends, he died 1688).

Samuel Evans settled in vicinity of now Hagerstown, Md. Believed he lived in the Conococheague Settlement. Howard Leckey author Tenmile Co. lists a record of Evans' birthdates from the Swan-Hughes Bible. This record seems to be the chn. of Samuel. No wf is shown however the names in the bible do relate to other records as 1772 Tax Rolls of Springhill Twp., Bedford Co. which now includes Greene Co. Tradition says Samuel came with John when he moved over the mts. He died 30 Sept. 1770.

The Bible record above clearly shows Evans relationship to the Swan, Hughes & Lucas families. This traced through the Halls & Evans in Md. Richard was the grdfather of John and also Elizabeth Lucas who mar. John Swan Sr. & Sarah Lucas who mar. Capt. Jesse Pigman (see "Tenmile Co. & Its Pioneer Families" by Howard Leckey.

John Evans b. 2 Nov. 1728 (Swan Hughes Bible) probably Conococheague Settlements. He mar. ~~ca 1754~~ 11 march 1748 Sarah Denny who evidently died before John as she's not in his will. Pa. Mar. Prior to 1790

He was buried on his home farm but a memorial tbst. is in Fort Martin Methodist Church Cem. from the DAR. Also here are stones for hs son John Jr., son-in-law John Snider also Rev. War vets.

Dear Linda,

As always, your letter was full of info and most welcome. Your activities and the amount of work you find time for simply amaze & inspire me!

Thank you very much for checking on KIRKP - & ROSB - in Maysville. The lack of any trace of SAMUEL & MARTHA ( except for the 1800 Ky. Census which shows SAM'L KILP.- & Joseph Rosberry in Fleming Co) in Ohio & Ky records and Washington & Westmoreland Co.,Pa. (finally had a letter from my friend Helen Harriss in Pgh.) makes me wonder if I have been barking up the wrong tree! Could there be a name, not SAM'L, who fathered this tribe & who has been ignored? There was a WILLIAM who marr. MARTHA in Va. - only MARTHA I've run across. It is strange not to have any record of SAMUEL in Ohio fr. 1810 to 1820 except the 1820 Census. When I first started gen. work, at Carnegie Library in Records of Augusta Co.,Va. by Chalkley, there were some notes on SAMUEL & MARGARET (DICKEY) KIRKP.- marr. in 1770 - which I dismissed as not our folks. Now, maybe they were the parents of our S.K.?! The SW corner of Pa. was Augusta Co.,Va. until the Mason-Dixon line.

Will try another angle to find a record searcher in Bucks Co. there are 4 members of W. Pa. Gen. Soc. who live in eastern Pa. Will see if one of them will check records in Doylestown.

Thank you for the newspaper clipping. Thanks to you we know something about all of those named. I've known there is a KIRKP.- Gen. by Shawver but did not find it in Carnegie Lib. If I am ever in a large Lib. again, I'll look for it.

I'll be glad to look for your WILSONS, as I do subscribe to the "Wilson Warehouse", but must have more info, such as: where did they live, what other dates are known, any wive's names, is JOB b. 1771 the earliest ancestor you know, etc. There are WILSONS everywhere, but WADY should help. Where does that name tie in?

From the W.Pa.Gen.Soc.Quarterly which just came, I picked out some notes:

On this the 24 day of February A.D. 1851. personally appeared before me, a Justice of the peace within and for the county aforesaid Benjamin Watson, a creditable witness, who upon his oath deposes & says, that he is personally acquainted with James Thompson, who makes the with declaration and was acquinted with him when drafted in February 1814. I did not go with him into the service, but I knew of his being drafted, knew when he started into the service,— and after the expiration of the six months, saw him have the annexed certificate of discharge, and have frequently seen it since that time. I was not present when James Thompson made the within declaration, but I heard him re-acknolage the making of the same, and can say that he is the identical James Thompson, described in the annexed certificate of discharge.

Old Russellville Cemetery Jefferson Township

This large cemetery is located north of Route 125 on North Kendle Road, within the limits of Russellville. The grounds were in a deplorable condition with weeds, briers, etc. taking over. Many stones had to be brought to the surface for copying. Several monuments were broken and illegible. Copied April, 1962.

GRANDDAD THOMPSON (JOHN WHITEMAN) CAME TO CLERMONT COUNTY FROM BROWN IN THE YEAR OF 1859.HE USED TO WORK ON A STEAM BOAT,DOWN TO NEW ORLEANS.THE CAPTION OF THE BOAT GAVE THE WORKERS A HARD TIME SO ONCE HE TRIED IT ON GRANDDAD,HE KICKED THE CAPTION IN THE STOMACH THE CAPTION,LATER SAID"HE'D RATHER BE KICKED BY A MULE THAN A THOMPSON."HE WAS IN TWO OR THREE WARS AND NOT AFRAID OF ANYTHING.

SO SAYS HIS GRANDSON GATCH BEACH.
